SOUTH AFRICA
2016	Colombard Sauvignon Blanc, Aloe Tree, South Africa		£4.99	1
2015	Sauvignon Blanc, Indaba, Western Cape, South Africa This easy-to-like wine is loaded with forward citrus tones alongside additional scents of gooseberry and fresh grass. Bright citrus flavors and ample acidity help to keep the finish fresh and lively.	£9.25	£6.50	1
2013	Chardonnay Rustenberg Estate, Stellenbosch, South Africa A nose of citrus and palate of vanilla and peach. From the crown jewel in South Africa's wine industry.	£15.75	£10.50	1
2015	Chardonnay, Topiary Wines, South Africa The subtlety, restraint, controlled citrus cream notes and utterly self-assured nose has everything from candied lemon and lime, hazelnut and vanilla essence to crushed rock and white petalled flowers.	£23.50	£15.75	1
SPAIN
2011	Garnacha Blanca, Las Colinas del Ebro, Spain Simple apple, peach and citrus aroma. An easygoing, fresh dry wine with white-fruit flavours of peach and nectarine. Try with white meat dishes such as chicken.	£9.76	£6.25	1
2013	Colinas del Ebro Garnacha Blanca, Terra Alta, Spain Yeasty aromas, green melon and apple are clean and stony. This is juicy, fresh, well cut and mineral in feel, with citrusy flavors of lime and tangerine. The same goes for the finish, which is crisp, light and steady. Serve with poultry or on its own.	£10.50	£7.25	37
2015	Rioja Blanco, Bodegas Vallemayor, Rioja, Spain Nice and light. Aromas of lemon with herbaceous notes and citric flavours of lemon and lime. Subtle with a lingering pineapple pinch. Goes well with shellfish, appetizers and snacks as well as lean fish and cured meats.	£11.00	£7.95	1
2015	Albarino Rias Baixas, Torres de Ermelo, Spain Floral and fruity aromas with lemon, apple and stone fruit notes. Fresh, oily with good acidity. Match with shellfish, appetizers and snacks as well as lean fish and cured meats.	£13.50	£8.95	1

NEW ZEALAND
2014	Pinot Noir, Te-Pa, Marlborough, New Zealand Alluring aromas of dark plum and spice, a bright perfume and scents of red cherry, raspberry and lifted floral notes. This Pinot Noir spent 10 months in seasoned French oak barrels before being bottled with minimal fining or filtration. Drink now or up to 2025. Match with BBQ, cajun, pork and poultry dishes.	£23.00	£14.95	4
2012	Bannockburn Pinot Noir, John Forrest, New Zealand Central Otago has fast become New Zealand's answer to top quality Burgundy. Bannockburn is home to some serious players so no surprises to see John Forrest here. This fruit-forward red has a generous body and just sufficient freshness to keep things lively. The oak has been carefully managed delivering sweet cinnamon spice. A good match for pigeon breast or a humble pasta ragu.	-/-	£21.75	9
2013	Syrah, Gimblett Gravels, John Forrest, New Zealand The Gimblett Gravels are possibly the only place in New Zealand where the weather is warm and dry enough for this grape to reach full ripeness. The area is now realising that potential delivering some very fine reds. This tiny batch Syrah is dark and concentrated with layers of black fruit, spice, tar and smoke. It will age very gracefully.	£31.50	£22.25	3
